St. Augustine wrote that Easter
was celebrated on 3 different Sundays.

Apr 25, 387

April 24-25, 387

Julian Cal.

Holy Saturday!

Augustine was baptized.

Apr 25, 387 was Easter
(pg 322; Book of Cal.)

Augustine noted angrily in a letter that the Alexandrians were celebrating Easter on April 25 and Romans on April 18.

Worse still he feared that the Arian Churches of GAUL - still thriving despite Nicea's condemnation of their founder's doctrine - had come up with a third date: Using yet another formula, they celebrated Easter that year on Mar 21.

Valentinian II was driven from Italy
by MAXIMUS.

He fled to Theodosius who returned with him.

Theodosius captured MAXIMUS
at AQUILEIA, and slew him.

387

Magnus MAXIMUS invaded Italy.

He was defeated & killed in 388.

The main beneficiary was Valentinian II, now 19 yrs old.
